Health Guarantee/Contract

A The seller certifies that the puppy you purchased is in sound health at the time of sale to the best of our knowledge, and has been given all vaccinations and dewormings dated on the Vaccinations Report given to the buyer(s). We try and do our best to provide the new owner with a healthy puppy. The buyer will become responsible for further vaccinations, boosters, and dewormings. If the puppy becomes sick or has genetic defect, the following situation must be adhered to in order for a replacement to be made.

B An official report from a licensed veterinary stating, without a doubt, the puppy has genetic defect that would hinder the puppy, must be send to us along with a number of the vet's office. If the puppy should die, an autopsy must be done by a licensed vet stating the cause of death. The documentation must be forwarded to me before a determination will be made. We the seller reserves the right to confirm the diagnosis with the vet of our choice. The seller will not be responsible for any expenses you may incur, Including return shipping & vet expenses.

C We do our best to raise our puppies from healthy parents & it is your responsibility to take good care of your new furbaby to ensure them a healthy happy life. You will be responsible to help your new furbaby to grow into a healthy adult.

D We do recommend that the puppy will be taken to the vet within the first five business days after they leave there home and go too there new forever home.

E Hernias, Umbilical and Inguinal are very common for this breed and will occasionally happen. Most will be out grown however if they are not they can easily be fixed at time of spaying/neutering. We highly recommend to get them fixed at that time. If surgery is needed we do offer to pay $125 for umbilical and $150 for inguinal.

F If you are unable to keep you new furbaby in the future and wish to return the puppy to the seller you can do so along with all the paperwork provided to you at time of purchase. However you WILL NOT receive a refund for the puppy

G We do agree to a two week health and one year genetic guarantee on your new furbaby as stated above. This guarantee applies to the original buyer only.
